

The 22nd International Council on Alcohol, Drugs and Traffic Safety (ICADTS) Conference

The City of Edmonton's Traffic Safety section will host T2019, the 22nd International Council on Alcohol, Drugs and Traffic Safety (ICADTS) Conference. This conference brings together delegates drawn from the areas of public health and safety, traffic, and transport psychology, public health, law, medicine, economics, law enforcement, public policy, education, pharmacology, toxicology, forensic science, human factors, and alcohol intervention and rehabilitation.

For over 65 years delegates have met to find solutions to issues relating to alcohol, drugs and traffic safety around the world. From the first host city Stockholm, Sweden to more recent host cities including Oslo, Norway, Brisbane, Australia and Gramado, Brazil. Edmonton has been chosen as the next host city 2019. ICADTS provides delegates with a great opportunity to network and explore ideas and solutions to current and emerging issues.

Registration for the 22nd International Council on Alcohol, Drugs and Traffic Safety will be open in the late autumn of 2018.

Information on speakers and presenters, fees, policies and the online registration form will all be made available in the coming weeks. Check for updates or registration at the T2019.org home page. <https://t2019.org/>
